DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to the amendment filed on 8/28/06.

After a search and a thorough examination of the present application and in light of the prior art made of records, claims 4-8 (renumbered as 1-5) are allowed.

Claims 1-3 have been cancelled.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Attorney, Miles Yamanaka (Reg. No. 45,665) on September 29, 2006.

Please amend the claims as follows which was filed on 8/28/06:

1. (cancel)
2. (cancel)
3. (cancel)

Reason for Allowance

3. The prior art made of records does not teach or fairly suggest the combination of elements, as recited in independent claims 4 and 7. More specifically, the prior art of records does not specifically suggest wherein a backup creating module, which is, capable of creating a duplicated backup copy of the embedded code in the storage server's system memory module and storing the backup copy into the backup region in the storage server's mass storage module, wherein the backup region is reserved to be used solely for storing a backup copy of the embedded code: a code inspecting module, which is capable of being activated at the boot and during operation of the storage server to inspect whether the embedded code in the system memory module is corrupted, and if yes, generating a recovery enable message; and a recovery module, which is capable of being activated in response to the recovery enable message from the code inspecting module to move the backup copy stored in the backup region in the storage server's mass storage module back to the system memory module to thereby restore the corrupted embedded code in the system memory module.

The dependent claims, being definite, further limiting, and fully enabled by the specification and are also allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
